Nicholas SMITH

A group of runners is captured in motion on a paved path that runs along the edge of a large steel bridge. The scene is set during sunset, with the sun low on the horizon to the right, casting long shadows and a warm, golden glow. The bridge's massive steel structure dominates the upper half of the frame, while a city skyline is visible in the distance across the water. The runners are in various stages of their stride, and their shadows are cast long and dark on the pavement.
